Achieving for Children has commissioned YMCA to deliver youth activities and support out of the Dickerage Sports and Community Centre.

Dickerage Sports and Community Centre's adventure playground has exciting activities/equipment including a five-a-side ball court, youth café with internet access and a 30ft mountain play tower. Our enthusiastic staff run a variety of activities ranging from sports, karaoke, arts and crafts and trampolining.

Facilities:

five-a-side football

café with Web access

mountain play tower

skate ramps and street circuit under 8s play area: slides, swings and climbing frame multi-use games area

snooker, pool, table tennis, table football, tennis, darts

Safe driving project: if you are sixteen or over we offer a project on safe driving which uses a computerised driving simulator. (One hour per week over a six week period.)

We also provide young people in Kingston aged 8 - 19 the opportunity to participate in Music Production, Technology, Theory or Engineering. We also support them to achieve accredited awards and qualifications to boost their self-esteem and self-confidence
