Ham Youth Centre

Organisation Details

Description of activity

We are doing things differently due to COVID 19. Please look at our web page for information about latest activities and how to book them. Youth workers will be available for young people if they need support, information, advice or guidance and that they should feel free to contact us on our office or mobile telephone numbers during this period.

Come down to Ham Youth Centre where our team of youth workers will provide you with a wide range of activities from cooking to free running and archery to music making.

We are open every night of the week offering loads of activities such as skateboarding, music, the Duke of Edinburgh's Award, information on drugs and sexual health, Parkour and football or just come and chill at one of our drop in sessions playing pool, Xbox or table tennis. We also run trips and activities during school holidays.

Built within Ham Close opposite Grey Court School, the building offers a large hall, art room, social area, computer suite, music recording studios and rehearsal rooms. The youth centre serves the local community with a variety of activities for young people. If you want more information contact the centre manager Ben Skelton on the details provided. Look at the activities listed below or our webpages to see what we have been up to.
